The Florida Asian American Justice Alliance (FAAJA) announces its 2024 FAAJA Florida Favorites endorsement of The Honorable Robin Bartleman for reelection to Florida House District 103. Since her election in 2020 during the pandemic as well as during her entire life of service, Representative Bartleman has been an educator, communicator, and someone who others turn to when in need. State Representative Robin Bartleman serves a House District that includes portions of Broward County's Weston, Pembroke Pines, Southwest Ranches, Miramar, Sunrise, and Davie and borders the Florida everglades. Representative Bartleman strongly supports the urgent need to address climate change, flooding, and the environment. In addition, as a former School Board member and educator of children with disabilities State Representative Robin Bartleman often and passionately is the voice of disabled children and their families who are unable to speak for themselves.

FAAJA supports Florida House District 103 State Representative Bartleman to:

FIGHT TO IMMEDIATELY ADDRESS CLIMATE CHANGE

FIGHT FOR AFFORDABLE HOUSING AND INSURANCE

FIGHT FOR CHILDREN AND THEIR FAMILIES

FIGHT FOR PUBLIC SCHOOLS AND THEIR TEACHERS

FIGHT FOR HIGH QUALITY HEALTHCARE

AND, FIGHT FOR THE RIGHTS OF ALL PEOPLE TO BE TREATED JUSTLY

It is with great pleasure that the Florida Asian American Justice Alliance joins first responders, educators, environmentalists, unions, women's groups, realtors, doctors, diversity advocates, and anti-gun violence groups in endorsing State Representative Robin Bartleman for reelection to Florida House District 103.
